

HIS EXCELLENCY
MOST REVEREND MICHAEL W. FISHER
By the Grace of God and the Authority of the Apostolic See
BISHOP OF BUFFALO

DECREE THE MERGER OF ST. ISIDORE PARISH, PERRY AND ITS TERRITORY INTO ST. MICHAEL PARISH, WARSAW

THE FACTS

On 31 August 2008, as part of the Journey in Faith and Grace initiative, the parishes of St. Joseph, Perry; St. Stanislaus, Perry; St. Mary, Silver Springs; and St. Joseph, Bliss were merged to form the new parish of St. Isidore, Perry. St. Isidore was established as a territorial parish encompassing all the former boundaries of the parishes which contributed to its formation.

St. Isidore Parish maintained two worship sites, St. Joseph church in Perry, which became the parish church, and St. Mary church in Silver Springs. From the foundation of the parish in 1879, these churches have the tradition of being linked. The first Pastor of both parishes, Reverend Peter Beckery, served those communities for a few years before being succeeded by Reverend Thomas Herrick who also pastored both communities.

Since the union of these communities in 2008, St. Isidore Parish has served the towns of Perry, Silver Springs and the surrounding area. In September of 2022, St. Isidore Parish was included in Family #14 as part of the Road to Renewal program.

The Road to Renewal has allowed the diocese to gain a more realistic picture of the financial and sacramental situations in its parishes. St. Isidore Parish has been identified as a community that could benefit by being joined with its sister community in Warsaw. Additionally, due to our need to amass a substantial sum of money to settle numerous civil claims in Federal Bankruptcy Court, the possibility of alienating this property has also been suggested. This was discussed with members of the Chancery and especially with the Reverend Bryan Zielenieski, Vicar for the Renewal. As a result of these conversations, I hereby issue the following decree.

THE LAW

Because a parish is a public juridic person (cc. 116, 515 §3) and therefore established perpetually (c. 120), it can only be extinguished by legitimate authority according to the norm of law. Canon 515 §2 states, "It is only for the diocesan bishop to erect, suppress, or alter parishes. He is neither to erect, suppress, nor alter notably parishes, unless he has heard the presbyteral council."

Unstated in this norm is the requirement for at least a just cause in augmenting the structure of a parish. As a parish is defined in law as "a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor (parochus) as its proper pastor (pastor) under the authority of the diocesan bishop" (c. 515 §1), the focus of such augmentation is primarily concerned with the pastoral care of a group of people and only secondarily interested in specific worship sites. Thus, a merger of parishes falls under the governing authority of the diocesan bishop in accord with canon 374 §1.

Following the norm of canon 121, when two public juridic persons "are so amalgamated that one aggregate, itself with a juridic personality, is formed, this new juridic person obtains the goods and patrimonial rights proper to the prior ones and assumes the obligations with which they were burdened." The eminent canonist Reverend Robert Kennedy notes, "Canon 121...focuses on what, in the United States, is called a consolidation, in which two or more juridic persons are so joined that each of them loses its own juridic identity and in their stead a new juridic person is constituted. A consolidation involves both the suppression and creation of juridic persons" ("Chapter II: Juridic Persons" in New Commentary on the Code of Canon Law (New York: Paulist Press, 2000) 168). Since the norm of canon 121 assumes a consolidation in which two juridic persons go out of existence to form a new juridic person from the amalgamation of the former entities, it does not strictly apply to the situation of a parochial merger in which one entity absorbs another.

When the principle of law contained in canon 121 is applied to the canonical merger of one parish into another, the receiving parish must assume all net assets and debts of the merging parish. Here the term "net assets" is used to indicate that the merging parish is responsible for paying off its debts before an accurate assessment of what constitutes the temporal goods of the merging parish can be determined. "Commutative justice," the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us, "obliges strictly; it requires...paying debts" (n. 2411). This amount, once established, will be transferred to the receiving parish. What would be a clear a iure transfer of assets and liabilities to a newly constituted juridic person described in canon 121, is only partially applicable to the situation of a merging parish and can thus be addressed in terms of "net assets" to be identified at a future date.

THE ARGUMENT

The reshaping of the diocese to prepare it for more effective ministry in the future requires a certain consolidation of resources. The goal of the Road to Renewal is to reduce the strain on our already limited number of priests while at the same time uniting communities to foster a greater drive to “go out to all the world and preach the Gospel to all creation” (Mk 16:15). Part of this process requires the merging of parishes and the overall reduction of physical worship sites throughout the diocese. Looking at St. Isidore Parish in particular, the research and consultation done by the Office for Renewal and Development has revealed that this community would be better served by joining its resources to St. Michael Parish in an extinctive merger.

On 27 August 2024, the presbyteral council met at the Catholic Center of the Diocese of Buffalo. At this meeting, I consulted the council about the possibility of merging St. Isidore Parish, Perry into St. Michael Parish, Warsaw. Rev. Zielenieski pointed out that there would likely only be one available priest serving in Family #14 by 2030. St. Michael Parish is also being considered to absorb the territory of other nearby parishes so as to centralize pastoral ministry and increase efforts for evangelization. This proposal received unanimous support from the members of the Presbyteral Council present on 27 August.

Having heard the Presbyteral Council on this issue, I have chosen to merge St. Isidore Parish into St. Michael Parish in accord with canon 515 §2.

Thus, having done the requisite consultations and having gained the required consents, I, the undersigned Most Reverend Michael W. Fisher, Bishop of Buffalo, exercising my ordinary power in virtue of canon 515 §2, do hereby decree that St. Isidore Parish, Perry be merged into St. Michael Parish, Warsaw and St. Isidore to be extinct thereby.

St. Michael Parish will be the recipient of the net assets and liabilities of St. Isidore Parish. The territorial boundaries of St. Michael Parish will henceforth include:

The townships of Middlebury, Warsaw, Perry, Castile, Genesee Falls, Pike, Gainesville, that part of the Townships of Wethersfield and Eagle that is east of Centerville Rd (Rte. 362), and Poplar Tree Rd., and that part of the Township of Orangeville east of the Orangeville Center Rd.

The intentions of the founders and donors regarding the temporal goods and patrimonial rights proper to the extinct St. Isidore Parish, insofar as they exist, must be respected. In addition, the temporal goods and patrimonial rights, and obligations of the extinct St. Isidore Parish must be defined and allocated according to the norm of law (cf. cc. 121-122) as interpreted by this document.

All the parish and sacramental records of the extinct St. Isidore Parish are to be properly preserved and safeguarded in the parish archives of St. Michael Parish, Warsaw, in accord with the norm of law.

This decree is to be effective on Friday 7 November 2024.

This decree is to be communicated to the Rev. F. Patrick Melfi, the Pastor of both parishes (c. 532) and the two parishes affected by this extinctive merger (cf. cc. 7, 54 §1). Anyone who feels his or her rights have been legitimately harmed by this decree, may present a challenge by requesting its revocation or emendation to its author within ten (10) useful days from its legitimate notification. Further recourse will follow the norms of canons 1734-1739.

Given at the Chancery of the Diocese of Buffalo on this 10th day of October 2024.
